

San Antonio Charter Chapter

Dear Members and Friends of ICF San Antonio,

ICF San Antonio is proud to announce two board changes as of March 1st, 2022:

- Let's welcome Aurora Geis as the new chapter President! Aurora acted as the President Elect in the last 12 months, and as the Director of Marketing & Communications for the previous two years. We welcome Aurora in her new role with open arms and an open heart, and thank her for her commitment and vision.
- Susanna Clavello is now the new Director of Social Responsibility, responsible for partnering with community organizations, and for growing ICF San Antonio's visibility and support for the community collaboratively through pro-bono and low-cost coaching. These and other efforts will help educate the greater San Antonio community about coaching, its value, and benefits.

Spiraling Up Your Strengths Pro-Bono Coaching:

This new pro-bono coaching opportunity is off to a great start. With 10 chapter volunteers supporting 10 at-risk juniors at Roosevelt High School, the goal is to build student's self-esteem and vision for the future around their strengths. This opportunity is possible thanks to a partnership between ICF San Antonio, Communities in Schools, and Friends of Communities in Schools. A special applause to Soonalyn Jacob for helping us launch this program off the ground!

ICF San Antonio is using a new Texting platform:

We realize that several pieces of email from the chapter are ending up in members' spam folder, leaving the impression of a lack of communication. In order to address this gap, ICF San Antonio will start sending out updates and notifications via text. Please accept text messages from (726) 213-7260. These are not spam text messages!

Coaching Tools and Resources:

Some members of the chapter have asked for coaching tools and resources. We are working on adding a Tools & Resources page to our website and welcome any document you'd like to share. Please contact Susanna Clavello at socialresponsibility@icfsa.org. This will be especially beneficial to members who are new to the coaching profession.

ICF South Texas Chapter Update:

As shared in the February 24th email to members and friends of the chapter, the merging process is ongoing. The process is being facilitated by an excellent outside consultant to ensure clarity of purpose and goals, streamlining of processes, consensus on all decisions, and a smooth transition. The next meeting with the consultant will take place on March 16th. Stay tuned for more updates as information becomes available.
